2020 Heraldry Competition Rules and Registration

---

Goals:

- ❖ To create your own Coat of Arms (herald) to represent your school.

Heraldry Guidelines:

- ❖ Artist(s) may consist of individual students or groups of students working together.
- ❖ Each Coat of Arms must be 3' wide x 4' high (on material of choice) and must include:

- SHIELD: Shape of your choosing.
- HELM: Shape of your choosing.
- MANTLE: Design that represents the protection between the armor and the helmet.
- PARTING OF THE FIELD: These are the lines that divide your shield into sections. Must have at least 3 sections, but no more than 6.
- CHARGES: These are symbols that represent something about your school.
- MOTTO: A word or phrase that represents your school.
- COLORS: Use colors from the 16th century that represents your school. (Please remember that colors used were: White (Silver), Red, Yellow (Gold), Green, Blue, Purple and Black.)

This image is a guideline for creating a Coat of Arms. All pieces of the above example may be altered as long as each requirement is present as explained in the Guidelines.

- School Name must be included somewhere on the Shield.
- DISPLAY: Artist(s) are responsible for securing a hanging mechanism (string, rope, etc.) to the back of each Coat of Arms (12" – 15" in length) as heralds will be displayed hanging on wooden dowels for judging. (Dowels will be supplied by Scarborough Renaissance Festival®).
- ❖ Each entry must securely attach, to the back of the banner, a 3x5 card with your school name, teachers name, address, daytime phone number, email address, and category.
