Celebrating Chivalry at Scarborough May 8 & 9!

Dallas/Fort Worth, TX. (May 3, 2021): Scarborough Renaissance Festival's Celebrating Chivalry Weekend, May 8 & 9, 2021, revels in the chivalry and romance of the Renaissance!

Each day at 11:30 am, couples are invited to celebrate their own modern-day romances with a Renaissance flair by participating in the Vow Renewal Ceremony in the Festival's picturesque Wedding Garden. They will renew their vows and commitments to each other in a lovely, romantic ceremony that is free with Festival admission. For many of their patrons this is an annual tradition that simply cannot be missed!

At 3:30 pm each day at the Festival's Royal Marquee (in the Pecan Grove area of the Festival) visitors can also join the Knights of the Noble Cause for some lessons in how to be chivalrous. You are sure to see proof that chivalry is indeed alive and well in today's world!

"Chivalry in today's world may be considered a lost art, but its alive and well at Scarborough" says Doug Keller, General Manager of Scarborough Renaissance Festival®. "During our Celebrating Chivalry weekend, we strive to bring some of the honor, courtesy and courage that embody Chivalry back to our 21st Century visitors. It's just a little bit of the age-old magic and majesty that makes Scarborough such an amazing place!"
